Praying for our relationship with Indigenous neighbours: Our Heavenly Father, Oh Great Creator, Comforter and Saviour,
Thank you for - your great love that you pour out upon all people. It rains and it shines on us all.

- your word where it says you would never quit on me. Even when my steps falter with doubt, when my soul rages at injustice and those who seek to oppress and assimilate, even when my eyes swim with sorrow, and my hands shake with panic thoughts of these strange days ... even then you won't disown me.

Because your love resolves all of my terror, sadness, anger, and uncertainty. Your love becomes in me a new thing, it becomes hope.

Snachiliyah Yoodugee (thank you from the bottom of my heart, Creator) for this, your great love for me.

Cheryl Bear, Indigenous Relations Specialist/Strategic Associate, CBMin

Unity -

"Our firm decision is to work from this focused center: One man died for everyone...Because of this decision, we don't evaluate people by what they have or how they look...Now we look inside, and what we see is that anyone united with the Messiah gets a fresh start, is created new...All this comes from the God who settled the relationship between us and Him, and then called us to settle our relationships with each other."

Sermon Notes from Pastor Donny:

"Discovering Biblical Unity pt 2"

Ephesians 4:1-3

I. Our Calling

- The Gospel call
- Walking worthy

II. Keep don't create unity

- We already have unity
- Unity of the spirit
 - Unseen – Ideal I Cor 12:13
 - Seen – Practical
- Our goal and aspiration is to keep/preserve that unity

III. Keeping unity with the garments of grace:

1. Humility
2. Gentleness
3. Longsuffering
4. Forbearing
5. Love

Challenge: What are you doing to keep the unity? What are you doing to disrupt the unity? Which garment of grace are you missing?
