Today's Message Notes . . .

The Work of Holiness 1 Peter 1:13-21

In Christ we have: POSITION – ENVIRONMENT - WORK

The WORK of holiness

- There is no magic Jesus pill Phil 2:12 – work out your own salvation
- Work is our investment in what God has already done
  - His demand for justice was met in the cross of Jesus
  - He has declared us holy
- We do not do the work of holiness to ACHIEVE or MAINTAIN what we have been given already in Christ
- We must do the work of holiness
  - Practical meets spiritual – different than the world
  - Becoming conformed to the image of Jesus (Rom 8)
- We CAN work because God has given us the power and person of the Holy Spirit who enables us
  - He has given us the Holy Spirit (Gal 5, Rom 6)
  - He has given us all the tools needed (2 Peter 1:3)

I. Therefore... 1 Peter 1:1-12

1. Prepare your mind for battle

- The devil and his minions are at work AGAINST YOU right now!
  - Working overtly/openly in a physical world
  - They are at work covertly/spiritually specifically against you
  - WE MUST BE READY FOR THE BATTLE!
- Why battle us?
  - We have learned God is Holy
  - We are learning that we are to be Holy
  - Our Holiness proclaims HIS holiness

** IF the devil can keep YOU from living out the command to be holy then he can DIM the view of God within the culture (both world and church) and turn people away from God thus defeating the purpose and desire of God that ALL come to repentance. **

A. Gird up

- Readiness, nimbleness, preparedness
- Joshua 1:8
- Psalm 119:9

“To know Christ, and to make Him known locally and globally”

Creekside Community Church is here to help you live out God's purpose and understand His plan for your life. We invite you to participate in our worship together, small groups, missions, and outreach opportunities

Missions Highlights:

*From Bill and Janice Dyck, also our Partners in Mission in Bolivia through Canadian Baptist Ministries: We're here (in Calgary), working via Zoom. My meetings with my group from before is going well, I've a group of new (church) leaders, waiting to start. The next couple of weeks I'll also be doing training events re: mentorship with students and professors at the seminary (in Cochabamba). So, I'm managing to stay connected and busy.

I see some of the Bolivian pastors in my Zoom conferences wearing thick jackets and complaining of -8-degree mornings in Oruro, Bolivia, while I need a fan in my office to stay cool. I jokingly comment that they need to come to Canada to warm up. But, for those having lost homes and loved ones through fires and unrelenting heat, it really is nothing to joke about. Waves. Everything seems to come in waves.

Imagine being knocked down by an unexpectedly large wave, struggling to get up, only to be knocked down by a larger wave; as you flounder, to be hit by an even larger wave. That's been the experience of our friends in Bolivia and elsewhere. Since March of 2020, the waves of Covid-19 keep coming, and keep getting larger.

Yes, we all have to be careful and responsible. Take care. Stay safe.

Blessings, Bill

(from correspondence with Lori Anderson)

- From Helen Blackburn, whose mission work in Bolivia we also support: please pray for Heather (Canadian Co-worker) who is exhausted from her work, returning to Canada in October. Helen has booked her return to Bolivia for Dec. 1st, the Lord willing

And please continue praying for a mission-minded couple to hear God's call to help with the EFC Bolivian ministry to boys in San Andres
